Orlando Museum of Art

Dear Friends of the Festival,

Greetings and Welcome! The Council of 101, consisting of almost 300 members, is pleased to announce Festival of Trees 2010 is “Red Hot for the Holidays!” Thank you for joining us as we observe our 24th anniversary of this most notable Central Florida tradition, benefiting the nationally accredited, award winning Orlando Museum of Art (OMA).

No color says “Holiday” better than RED! Red says holiday in a bold, powerful and high energy way. Hot says holiday in a new, trendy and chic way. Red Hot says a fresh, dynamic look for Festival 2010. Here is a highlight of this year’s exciting changes: New Red Hot Design! New Red Hot Gala! New Treasures of the OMA! New Red Hot and Cool Holiday Stroll! New Red Letter Days! New Holiday Boutique! New Festival Café! New Growing Forest! Finally, New Council of 101 and Festival of Trees on Facebook and Twitter!

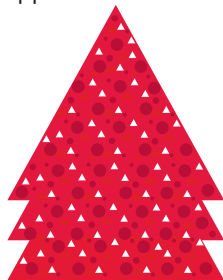

In addition to rolling out the “red carpet” for all that is New, our Red Hot Festival favorites still include dazzling Designer Trees and Vignettes, our ever popular Red-Nosed Reindeer Romp children’s evening party, an even more elaborate Entertaining by Design for a dollar’s chance to win fabulous treasures, Gingerbread Village houses, an outdoor Holiday Garden, Deck the Halls for small trees and wreaths, Toyland Town activity center and shop, Seniors’ Red Letter Day and finally, many Special Displays, Media Trees and miniature Christmas Villages.

The Council of 101 extends our sincere gratitude to PNC Bank as the returning Festival Presenting Sponsor for a fourth consecutive year. This has truly been a remarkable partnership for which we are so very grateful. Additionally, our appreciation goes out to all of the many donors, designers, and volunteers for their needed and unselfish support.

This year commemorates the Council’s 45th anniversary where we will surpass an amazing $5,000,000 in total funds raised for the OMA. In February, we will mark the 29th anniversary of our always popular, three day Antiques Show & Sale. In addition, the Council provides a Corporate Lease Program, leasing fine art prints from the OMA’s Contemporary American Graphics Collection to Central Florida businesses. This outreach program enables the purchase of new prints; yielding a collection of over 300 pieces, with a value to the OMA exceeding $1,000,000. Many of these prints are on display at this year’s Festival of Trees.

Our wish for you is a wonderful holiday season filled with family and friends. Time spent together is the best gift of all. Thank you for your support and may your holidays be very “Red Hot”!

With warm regards,
Carolyn Kraft Bethel

Purchasing Guide

Designer Trees, Deck the Halls items, and Gingerbread Village creations are available for purchase. All proceeds benefit the Orlando Museum of Art. Payment for your selections should be made at the sales desk in the Council of 101 Grand Gallery. Tickets for Prize Drawing items are available for purchase at stations throughout the Museum.

Please pick up your selections at the Museum on Sunday 11•21•10, 5-8pm or Tuesday 11•23•10, 10am-5pm. Designer Trees 6-1/2 feet and taller are available for delivery within the immediate Orlando area. Media Trees are pick-up only. Please see delivery instructions provided at the Contract Desk for more information.
