Mark Your Calendar for the Festival of Trees “Red Hot for the Holidays!” Opening November 13, 2010

Orlando, FL (April 16, 2010) - The Council of 101 is pleased to announce that Festival of Trees will open on November 13, and run through November 21, 2010. Red Hot for the Holidays! is the theme for this year’s event, will inspire and ignite holiday creativity for visitors. New special events and fresh ideas will combine to create special memories and embrace warm traditions. Spark your holidays this year by attending this unforgettable “Red Hot” event at the Orlando Museum of Art, 2416 North Mills Avenue, Orlando, Florida.

All proceeds benefit the Orlando Museum of Art. Special focus this year will be support of the museum’s school programs helping to educate over 25,000 children. Sponsorships are welcome, and the facility is available for rental in the evening hours for private receptions. For further details and information, please call 407 896 4231 x254 or email councilof101@aol.com.
